The New Horizon in Biomedicine

A component of the MISP research camp is the MISP talks. These will be held as a separate session on December 8th (from 17.00-21.00), and where some of the world leading experts attending the research camp will present the current State-of-the-art in their field of expertise. These talks will be didactic and forward looking – allowing us to dream on the future of precision medicine and the emerging new science frontiers and technologies.

The MISP talk session is open to all, scientists and general public, and will be held in the Maersk Tower, Jerne auditorium, Copenhagen
