

Q: Does your patient have an HIV Negative Partner?

If YES, please ask them if they would discuss with the research nurses [insert name and contact number of research staff] the possibility of taking part in the PARTNER study which is looking at transmission and condom use in sero-different partnerships.

If the patient is willing to discuss the study with the research staff but the research staff are not immediately available please write down the patient contact details on the sheet provided.